

Year 2004 Projects

Project Name	Activity	Project Description	Habitat Type	Acreage	Linear Miles
Nueces Delta Preserve (Second Property Acquisition)	Protection	The 1005 acre project is a component of a large scale acquisition/conservation project designed to protect, conserve and restore the Nueces River Deltaic Complex in perpetuity through acquisition, conservation easements and active management.	Uplands	1,005.00
Nueces Delta Preserve Prairie Wetland Project	Enhancement	The 50 acre project was designed and implemented to utilize stormwater runoff from agricultural lands to create seasonal freshwater wetland for wintering waterfowl and other wildlife.	Wetland	50.00
Total				1,055.00	