

Year 2004 Projects

Project Name	Activity	Project Description	Habitat Type	Acreage	Linear Miles
Chorro Creek Ecological Reserve	Restoration	Electric Riparian Fencing installed along 1.5 miles of Chorro Creek to keep livestock out of the the Creek.	Riparian		1.50
Los Osos Creek Stream Restoration - Swift Property	Restoration	Streambank Restoration to reduce erosion and improve habitat in a steelhead-bearing stream, including revegetation with 470 native plants* and 36 lbs of seed. (see Table 1 below for plant details)	Riparian		0.50
Maino Ranch	Protection	A permanent conservation easement was purchased to protect the natural resources, rural character, and working landscape of the 1860-acre Maino Ranch. The easement greatly limits subdivision and development, protects sensitive habitats, and insures the use of best management practices.	Riparian	100.00
Maino Ranch	Protection	A permanent conservation easement was purchased to protect the natural resources, rural character, and working landscape of the 1860-acre Maino Ranch. The easement greatly limits subdivision and development, protects sensitive habitats, and insures the use of best management practices.	Upland	1,760.00
Pacey Property	Protection	Acquisition of property for protection of rare coastal dunes habitat	Beaches and Dunes	32.00
Walters Creek Stream Restoration	Restoration	Streambank Restoration to reduce erosion and improve habitat. Installation of riparian fencing and revegetation with native plants* (see Table 2 below)	Riparian		0.60
Total				1,892.00	2.60